Knotted Insides: An Outpouring of Anger, Grief, Collectivity, and Care

The following readings provide some resources on disability and crip theory and were suggested by Akanksha Mehta and Akriti Mehta as part of the event Knotted Insides: An Outpouring of Anger, Grief, Collectivity, and Care, in which Akanksha and Akriti facilitated a care space that centres on an abolitionist crip (of colour) politics that is rooted in the disability justice and liberation for all.

Reading List:

. “10 Principles of Disability Justice”, Sins Invalid
